It seems that the system couldn't automatically detect distinct student assignments within the uploaded document. To proceed, I'll need to manually review the contents based on the file structure and your instructions. Let's extract the text or content from the file to identify the assignments and apply the grading rubric. Please provide guidance if there are specific parts of the file you want me to focus on, or I can proceed with the entire document.